

VOCABULARY

Activity I

commemorated   facades   debris   renovate   thriving
deteriorating   graffiti   inscription   rural   vandalized

1. New York City, like all the world's great cities, is a crazy quilt of beautiful and ugly, well-cared for and failing, improving and _____ (growing worse).
2. On Fifth Avenue, one can spend hours window shopping, people watching, or enjoying some of the more interesting _____ (decorative fronts) on the older buildings.
3. Well-dressed people hurry to and fro, new cars crowd the streets; the city is _____ (prospering).
4. But walk a few blocks, turn a corner and, suddenly, the buildings are old and deserted, walls are covered with _____ (illegal scrawling), and the sidewalks are filled with dirt and _____ (waste matter).
5. In some spots, one can see cars that have been _____ (damaged illegally and to no purpose) and left to be towed to the junkyard.
6. A curious tourist might discover a nearly rubbed out _____ (words engraved in stone) on an old building, carved there in better times.
7. A historian might visit a crumbling monument in the area, and note what event it _____ (honored the memory of).
8. But, New Yorkers, being what they are, will not leave things in a rundown state forever. New York is alive. Build! Invest! _____! (restore) are the words heard.
9. For the person who loves all things urban, there is no place like New York. Of course, for those people who feel happier in a _____ (country-like) setting, New York will be too crowded, noisy, and dirty to feel like home.

Name _____

Using Words in Context

The best way to learn words is to use them! Next to each word below, are two other words. Write a sentence using all three words. Your sentence should be at least six words long.

1. thriving — business — selling

The roadside stand was doing a thriving business selling homegrown peaches.

2. commemoration — dinner — speech

_____

3. inscription — book — grandfather

_____

4. rural — horse — field

_____

5. deteriorating — building — neighborhood

_____

6. vandalized — cars — police

_____

7. debris — streets — deserted

_____

8. facade — ugly — attractive

_____

9. graffiti — angry — spoil

_____

10. renovated — modern — comfortable

_____

_____

In-Depth Thinking

1. Give examples from 1910 that show New Providence is thriving.

---

---

2. Describe several contrasts between the city in 1910 and 1935.

---

---

3. What appears in the skies in 1910, 1935, and 1970? How has technology changed the world?

---

---

---

Drawing Conclusions

1. Pretend that it is 1910, and you are staying at the hotel above the Butler Café. Describe your room and the café.

---

---

---

---

2. It is 1935. You have just lost your job at Reiter's Shoes, and you cannot pay your rent. How do you spend the day?

---

---

---

---

New Providence

GRAPHIC ORGANIZER

Compare and Contrast

One of the best ways to compare things or ideas is to make a chart. Complete the chart below by looking back at both the text and the pictures of New Providence. When a statement is true for that year, check the appropriate box. If it is not true for that year, mark an X in the box. If neither the picture nor the text provides you with an answer, make the best guess you can, and put an asterisk next to your check or X.

	1910	1935	1955	1970	1980	1992
The streets are cobblestone.
The streets are paved.
There is a bandstand at the center of town.
Women wear long skirts.
Getz and McClure is open for business.
Victorian homes dot the hillside.
Modern apartment buildings are on the hillside.

Name _____

	1910	1935	1955	1970	1980	1992
The Colonel Fleming House is used to house businesses.
The cars are Model-Ts.
The cars are Fords, American Motors, General Motors, etc.
A flock of birds flies overhead.
A jet plane is in the sky.						